

Reading Assignment

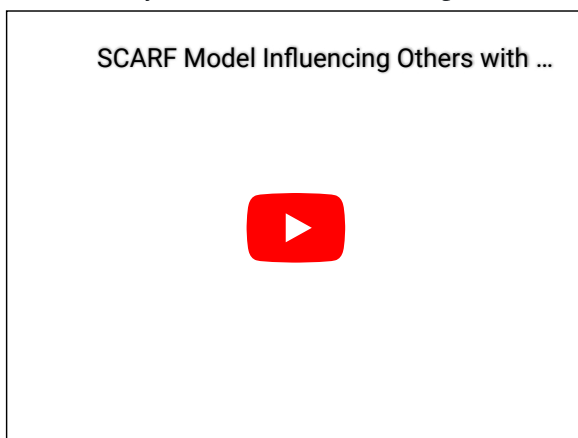

Rock, D. (2008). SCARF: A brain-based model for collaborating with and influencing others. NeuroLeadership Journal, 1. Download the pdf.

Research and read on Non Violent Communication (NVC). You may revisit the NVC manual provided in Unit 3 for your exercise with a peer partner.

Please note that both tools can be and are used for developing EI. You are required to fully understand the theoretical side, as well as knowing the practical applications. These tools can help you develop your own EI and help others develop their own.
